

Mrs. D. Jones

Dear Miss Jones

You were the best homeroom teacher
I ever had and I wish I could have you again next year.

Good Luck and Good Wishes
Have a happy summer and a safe trip home to.

Prologue

In the autumn of 1961, Pulaski Senior High School stepped into the spotlight and made its premiere. No opening night in the theatre has ever had more color and excitement than this first year in a new school. In our script, The Titan, we have tried to present, act by act, the drama of the first graduating class of Pulaski Senior High School.

The spotlight is focused on the seniors, who have starred in the initial performance. The scenes of our play are varied: the rural campus, the picturesque classrooms, and the broad playing field. Against this background unfolds the story of many firsts: the pep rally preceding the first football game, the freshmen tea, the school dance and the crowning of the Harvest Queen.

We hope you will enjoy the performance produced by the administration and directed by the faculty, with an efficient stage crew of juniors and sophomores. Come with us now to your box seat.

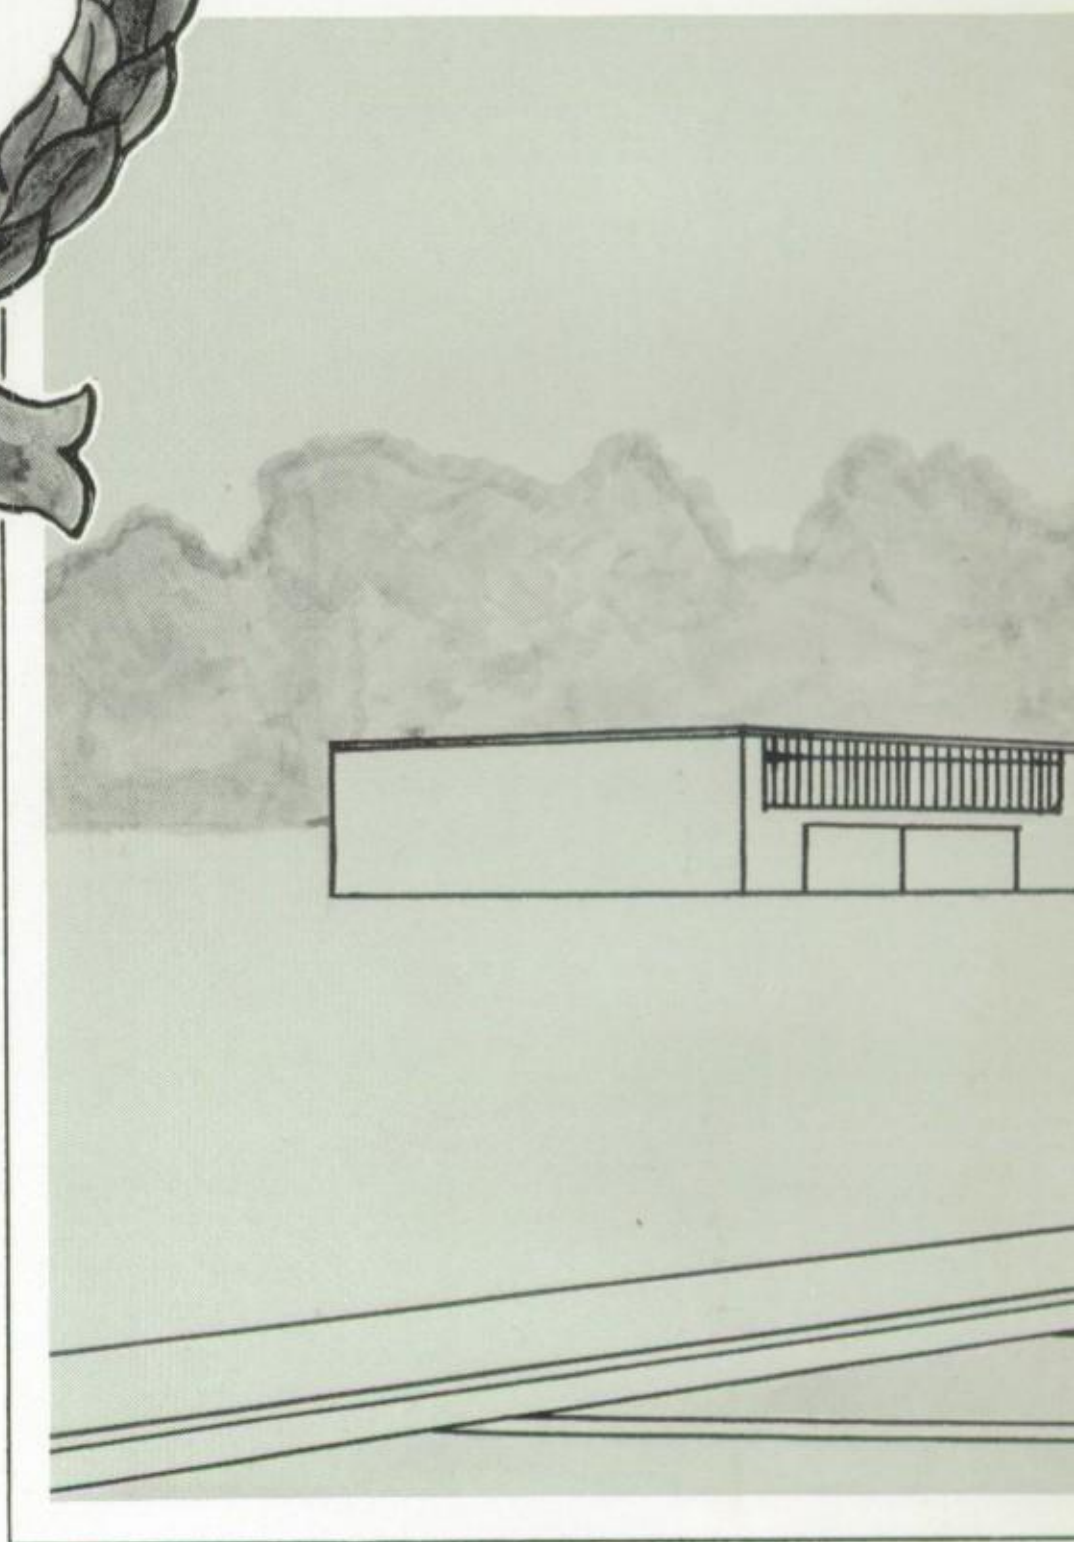

The curtain rises.

We will always have fond memories of our Mr. William G. Marsh, the first principal of Pulaski Senior High School. In the coming years, we will recall his friendly smile, his cheerful manner, his warm personal interest in each of us, his understanding, his inspiring leadership during this first trying year of our school, and his constant presence at our sports events and social functions. To him, we, the Class of 1962, proudly dedicate this first edition of the Titan.

POSTLUDE

On November 5, 1961, Pulaski Senior High School was formally dedicated. City and state officials were present to make the day a memorable one. The highlight of the dedication exercises was the address by Congressman at Large, Frank Kowalski, who spoke on the meaning of education in a democracy.

Ralph M. Gantz, Superintendent of Schools, introduced platform guests: the Assistant Superintendent of Schools, Lester Levine; Mayor Julius J. Kremski; former Mayor Joseph F. Morelli; and former presidents of the Board of Education and present members of the Board of Education.

Color and pageantry were added to the program with the Presentation of Colors by the Eddy Glover Post No. 6 and the musical selections by the Pulaski School orchestra and choral groups, directed respectively by Anthony Tercyak and Donald Santora.

In the words of Dr. Andrew J. Canzonetti, Chairman of the Board of Education at the time the school was constructed: "It was the fulfillment of a dream."

THE HONORABLE FRANK KOWALSKI
Congressman at Large

Sandra Mangan leads the guests and the audience in the singing of Our National Anthem.

This portrait of General Pulaski, which was a gift of the Pulaski Democratic Club, is displayed on the stage.

Parents and guests enjoy refreshments at the reception following the Dedication Ceremonies.

CEREMONIES HELD AT PULASKI SENIOR
HIGH SCHOOL
NOVEMBER 5, 1961

Harry Yeterian of The American Legion presents the flag to Principal William G. Marsh.

Andrew Canzonetti, Chairman of The Board of Education when Pulaski High School was built, talks to former School Board President, Mr. James Heath, and Joseph Morelli, former Mayor of New Britain.

Musical Director Donald Santora directs The Pulaski Choir.

Our high school has a rural campus setting.

Students wait at the west entrance after the first snowfall.

From the classrooms, students may look west at this typical farm scene.

THE SETTING

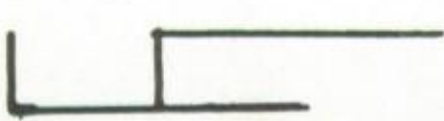

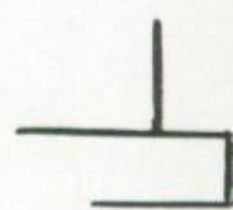

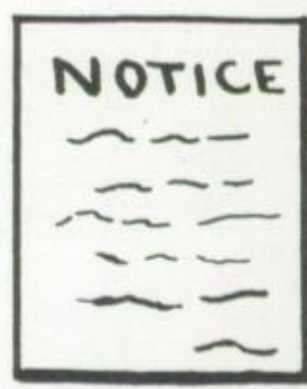

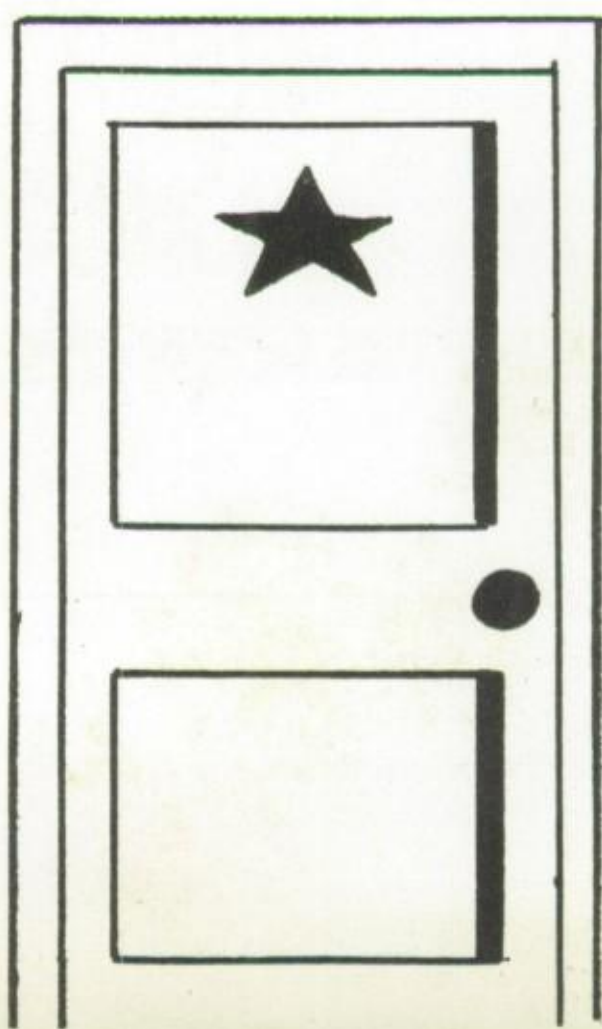

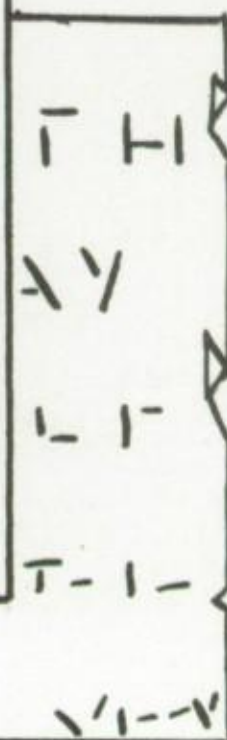

Nature adds a snowy mantle of beauty to our school campus.

A large picture window and indoor plants on the main staircase provide a scenic backdrop.

Students enjoy the leisure of a last minute conversation at the main entrance.

ADMINISTRATION

MR. RALPH M. GANTZ, Superintendent of Schools, stops his work to pose for a picture.

Our Vice-Principal, Miss Isabelle M. Bosch, has contributed much to Pulaski High School this first year. She has acted as Girls' League Advisor, Senior Class Advisor and has arranged many assemblies and extra-curricular activities that have added to the enjoyment of school life. Her "young in heart" way, her warm, friendly manner, her keen understanding of each individual student and her enthusiastic interest in school activities make her the ideal vice-principal who will always be respected and remembered by the class of 1962.

FIRSTS

A long table of smiling young ladies beam their approval of the Music Club's spaghetti supper.

Janice Peterson and Mr. Marsh smile happily after the ceremony crowning the first Harvest Queen.

The ballot box is the scene of activity as Janet Sulya, Anne Conti, and Joyce Shultz submit their entries for naming the yearbook.

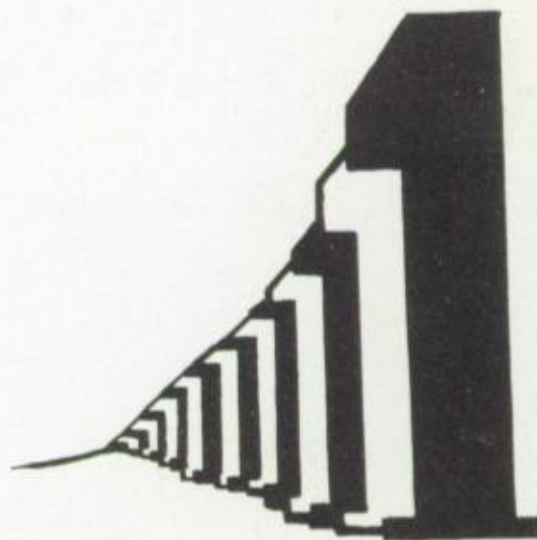

School Spirit remains high at the first pep dance at Pulaski, even though the team lost to New Britain High School.

A party mood pervades on stage with Sharon Anderson, as Miss Cook, leading the chorus in the song, "Polly Doodle Day", during Pulaski's first musical production, Swinging High.

The varsity cheerleaders and the band combine to arouse school spirit with "Hey Look Us Over" at the first pep rally.

Members of the Girls' League model the latest fashions at the first Girls' League Assembly on November 16, 1961. Miss Connie Trent, narrator, and her assistant are welcomed with friendly hospitality by Dolores Colella of the Home Economics Department.

Fielding a football team scheduled to play in Class A competition did not discourage the newly organized Pulaski "Generals." Composed primarily of inexperienced sophomores and juniors, with a few seniors, and supported by spirited cheerleaders and an enthusiastic student body, the first football team gained its experience the hard way and created an "esprit de corps" for the school.

Led by Co-captains Lee Scott, Dick Percival, and Robert Coates, the team increased in size from 30 to 50 players as the season progressed; the student body and community likewise increased its support. A sportsman's trophy, awarded by the newly formed Fathers' Boosters Club, attests to the spirit of the team.

The team, having gained in experience and co-operation, look forward to the promise of victory next year.

Dave Gordon stops a Norwich player from catching a pass.

Quarterback Al Tuskowski gets plenty of blocking as he prepares to handoff.

The sportsman's trophy was presented to Pulaski by the school's Fathers' Boosters Club.

The 1961-1962 basketball season for Pulaski High School got under way on December 8, 1961. The "Generals" were led on the court for the first time by Captain Lee Scott. Pulaski played eighteen games during its first season against some of the top teams in the Capital District Conference. They completed the season with a record of 2-16. The victories were scored against Fitch High of Groton and East Hartford High. It is interesting to note that, with the exception of Lee Scott, the squad was made up of juniors and sophomores.

At the Pulaski-NBHS basketball game, Captain Elaine Karalus leads cheerleaders Kathleen, Camosci, Judy Gutowski, Barbara Stanlonis, and Beth Cherpak in a rousing: "Come on boys! Victory!"

Louis Mazza (34) makes an all out attempt to block the shot of a Buckley player.

BASKETBALL

Statistics on the team's action this year show what a tremendous value Scott was. The reliable forward took individual honors by leading the club in most departments. Among his "firsts" were: most field goals, most rebounds, most foul points scored, most points scored in a single game by a Pulaski player and most points scored by a Pulaski player for the season.

Lou Mazza, Walt Anderson, and John Kubas also proved to be outstanding players. Mazza led the team in the best field goal percentage from the floor while Anderson led the team in foul line shooting. It was clearly evident that with each game the "Generals" played, they began to improve and mold together the nucleus of a first-class team.

Captain Lee Scott connects with a long jump shot in the Buckley game. Pulaski players are Walter Anderson (42), Louis Mazza (34), and John Kubas (30).

TRACK

Members of the track team are:
FIRST ROW, L-R: Roger Mitiguy, assistant coach; Lee Scott, Richard Kurnick, Joe Guerin, Walter Rudzien, William Buchas.
SECOND ROW: Daniel Silver, David Larivee, Louis Bazarnik, David Gordon, Russell Percival, John Nolan, Raymond Michaud.
FOURTH ROW: William Metzler, Jack Smith, Ken Kowaleski, Fred Kalita, Wesley Morehead, Craig Zendzian, James Kras, Woodrow Floyd.

Pulaski's first track season got off to a fine start on February 24, 1962, when senior Dick Kurnik threw a twelve pound shot put 57 feet 8½ inches. This throw was good enough to tie a New York City schoolboy for first place in the indoor shot put championship.

Kurnik, who also throws the discus and javelin, is an established leader along with Lee Scott, who excels in high jumping and broad jumping.

When the team, which is stocked mostly with inexperienced sophomores and juniors, competes in the Capital District Conference, coaches Bill Eaton and Roger Mitiguy hope that they will make a good showing.

CROSS COUNTRY

On September 22, 1961, the Cross Country Team had the distinction of being the first team to compete in any organized inter-scholastic sport for Pulaski High School. The team elected senior William Buchas to lead them as captain.

Although the harriers failed to end their first season with any victories, they were able to gain much needed experience. The majority of the squad were sophomores and juniors whom Coach Mitiguy feels would show a marked improvement next year after one full year of varsity experience.

The officers of the Girls' Sports Association plan the sports program for girls. They are Oretta Rondina, president; Jacqueline Gi-anoli, vice-president; Kathleen Camosci, secretary; and Patricia Wysocki, treasurer.

A girls' gym class plays a lively game of field hockey under the direction of Miss Harrowell.

The Girls' Sports Association managers are in charge of the various after school sports activities. The managers are Donna Pignatella, Barbara Cassarino, Paula Godlewski. Missing from the picture are Sandra Mangan, Paula Kron, Ann Kinney.

Missing from picture are Anne Conti, Richard Ignacak, John Brighenti, Daniel Michalski, Henry Slepski, George Townes, John Edwards, and James Kras.

MUSIC CLUB

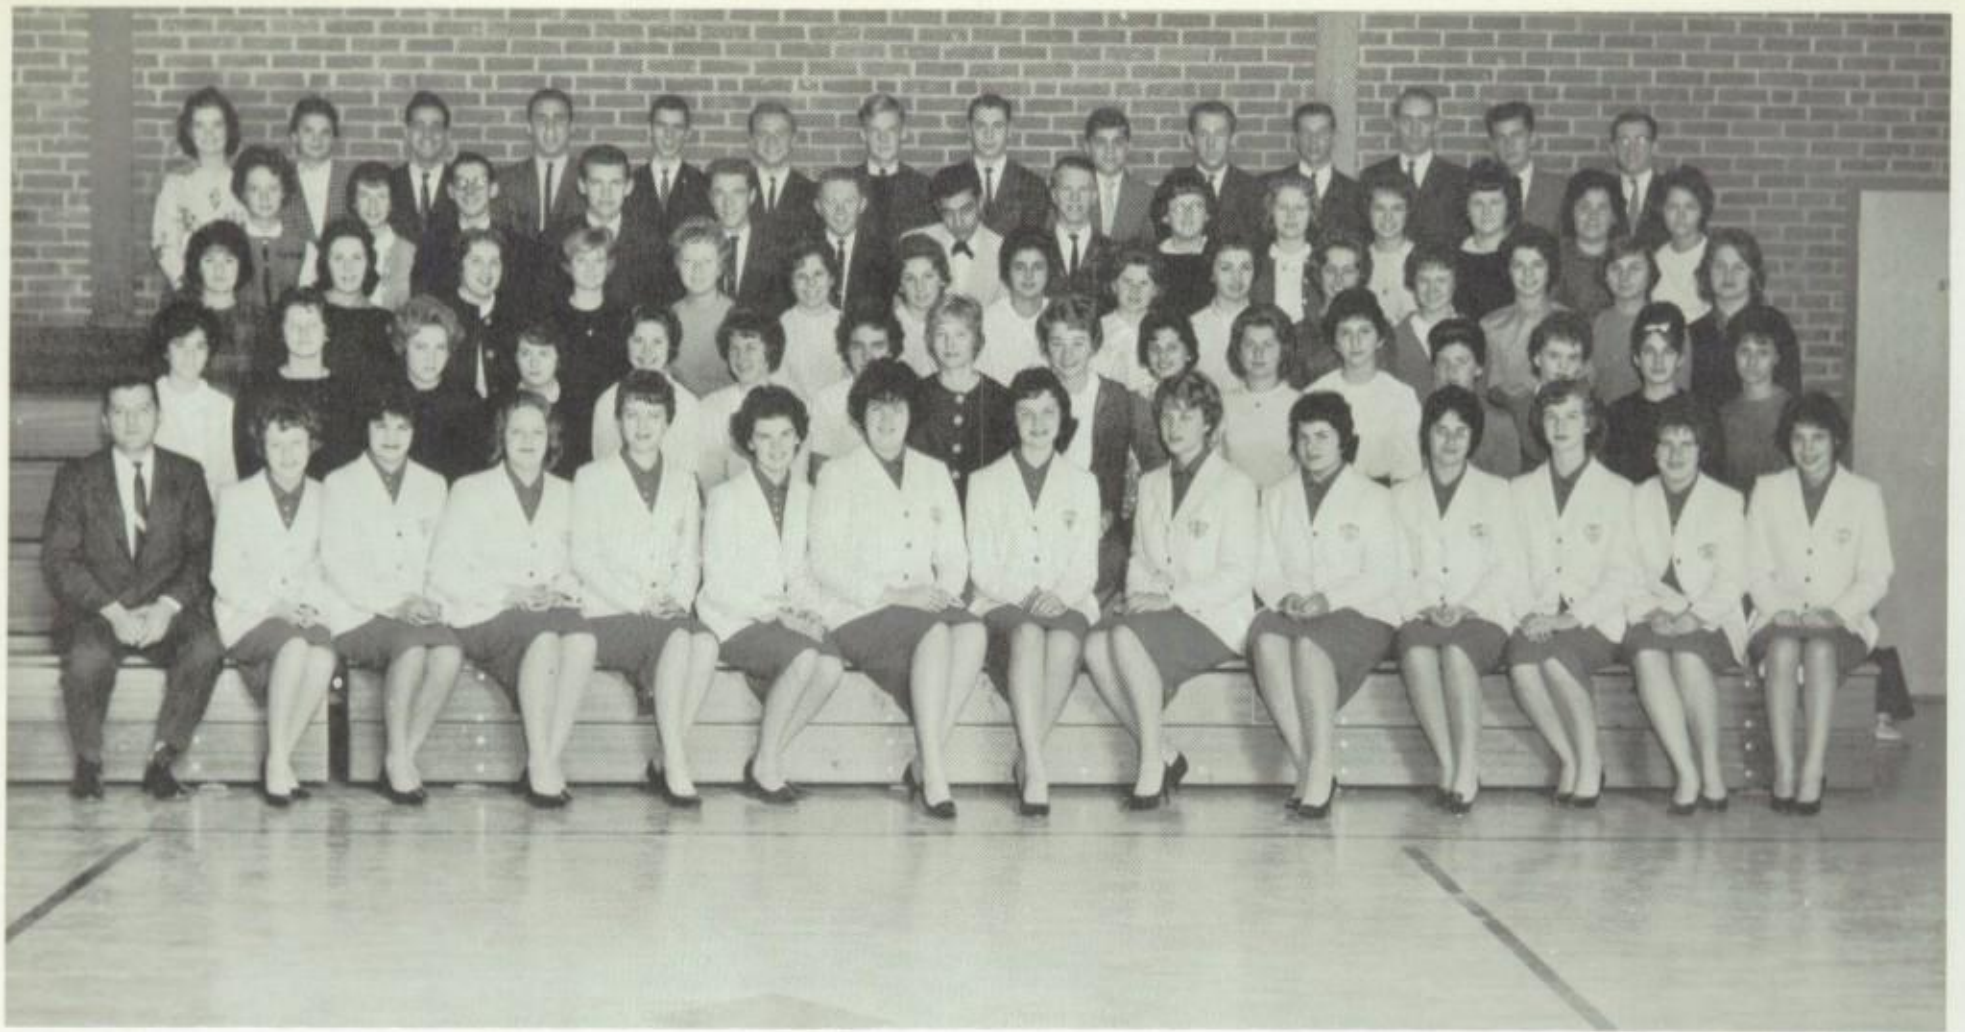

In spite of a small music department, the musical minded student has had ample opportunity to express his talent in the various musical groups pictured on these pages. The marching band was an integral part of every football game. Other musical groups have been featured in the assemblies and special programs. Many of the groups combined to present a Christmas Concert, the musical "Swinging High," and the Spring Concert. The Music Club has successfully accomplished many projects in its first year.

Love blooms and Connie (Evelyn Bromet) is distracted from her studies in the chemistry classroom at Cooper High as the Principal (Vincent Biscoglio) carries on the experiment.

Students who were interested in student government and school affairs volunteered to serve as the STUDENT COUNCIL this first year. The Council has settled traffic and cafeteria problems and sponsored many activities such as the Valentine Sweetheart Contest and Tag Day. It has set many precedents which will be followed in the future years at Pulaski.

Kenneth Teffs

Remember those hot bright days last fall when you came here,
Adam eight-hundredfold, first-doers, like him?
No one else had sat at these desks, or locked these lockers, or used this auditorium or this gym.

And you, like Adam, had to begin tradition, to set the ways that your successors will go.
You've given names to things, and the names will linger, familiar, unchangeable. What you plant will grow and stay alive, long after you have left it.
A sobering thought, indeed. Being pioneers is a sobering business, tho most such men are too busy (weren't you, at first?) to entertain any fears, or get self-conscious and critical, or wonder how wise their decisions may seem a hundred years hence,
or whether, if they'd turned in another direction,
it would really have made much difference.

But it would, you know. It must, for sooner or later people will say, But we've always done it that way!
tho they may not know, or care much, who began it.
They'll do it because you do it that way today.

There aren't many pioneers in a world so shrinking — we've little left to us now that's new but space;
yet you've had a chance to do your own exploring, and you've been the First Inhabitants of a place . . .

probably not the best ones, nor the worst, but past all possible argument the first.

Constance Carrier

EPILOGUE

We of the Titan staff feel privileged to bring our dramatic scenes to a close with an epilogue by a nationally known poet, Constance Carrier.

AUTOGRAPHS

Miss Jones to the most wonderful teacher anyone could ever wish to have. You always made our class interesting and full of fun.

Mrs. Jones -
To the most terrific teacher I've ever had - This year has been just terrific and I hope you come back to Pulaski next year. Have fun this summer and good luck at Yale! Let's save our money so we can both go to France!
See you next September (I hope!)
Love,
Barkara
Shoglund

Mrs. Jones,
If it wasn't for you,
I would never have enjoyed
This Year as much as I did!
I learned a lot more than I should have and you were the most pleasant teacher I had.

Ronald Schur

This year has been quite an experience and I must say a pleasant one. French II has been one of the most enjoyable classes I've had.

Mark Gaberman

Dear Mrs. Jones,
I have sincerely enjoyed having you for a home room teacher. I do hope your new home room is better behaved than we were. I'll be checking up on you to see if your plants are healthy. Take care of them and yourself too.

Mrs. Jones.
 To a wonderful person who's class or I have enjoyed very much. French could have never been the same without you as teacher have a nice summer and I hope to see in the fall.
 Kathy

Mrs. Jones,

You're the one teacher that I'll never forget. They don't make many more and wonderful people like you anymore.

Never forget me and my talking constantly. Best of luck always and God Bless You.

Love,

Kiane Thompson

Mrs. Jones,
 To the most fabulous person I've ever known, you well my favorite teacher and you will remain dear in my heart. May God bless you and grant your every wish. I as luck as your heart you paved in gold or a success. Best of luck always!
 Love,
 Anita Russo

Mrs. Jones -
 To the most understanding, I have & down-to-earth teacher
